Product description

This LED headlight with variable light distribution for the right (R) side is specially designed for the Porsche Cayenne model 9Y0 from 2018 onwards. The innovative LED technology ensures optimum illumination of the road under various driving conditions by automatically adjusting the light distribution. This increases safety at night and in poor weather conditions.

The OEM numbers for this headlight are 9Y0941754J, 9Y0941754F, 9Y0941754C and 9Y0941754, which ensures compatibility with your vehicle and confirms the authenticity of the product as an original Porsche part. The condition of the headlight is listed as "used" but in very good, undamaged condition, making it a cost-effective alternative to buying new. This high-quality LED headlight is an excellent choice for maintaining or improving the functionality and appearance of your Porsche Cayenne without compromising on quality or safety.
